March Almost Here

Time that you were selecting your spring apparel—selecting cloths and styles. This coming season is unlike any that you have ever known. It will be some time before you can realize conditions of the Dry Goods market. You will do well to select early. Not one single thing in our whole store that costs the same as last season, very few prices have been marked up. How long do you expect that we can keep old prices? Not long! There is no store in Vermont better prepared than we are. Our next winter's Sweaters are all on the way—lots of other kinds the same way. Will have to borrow lots of money to carry these goods along. Who gets the benefit? You, more than we do. See the following this week.

Wash Goods

Buying early means something this year. It means just this: One-half of the spring styles that we are showing now could not be duplicated later.

We will have plenty of goods all of the season—lots that we have now we won't have later.

Your selection early will mean more to you when you realize later that you have acted wisely by making an early purchase.

Endurance Cloth, one of our best. This has taken the place of 12½c Gingham. These for a short time at the old price—12½c. Later, they will have to be 15c or more.

Devonshire Cloths have advanced. We will sell these for a few days longer at the old price—18c per yard. Send for samples.

Burton Brothers Reception Voile—a new line of styles. These for a short time at the old price—25c per yard.

New Winner Voiles in over 20 different styles. These are very new, better than Holly Batiste; would be cheap at 15c. Our price to start these new cloths is 12½c per yard.

New 36-inch Irish Poplins. These on account of coloring will be hard to get a little later.

Avining Stripes will be good for skirts and suits. These at 25c per yard.

New Beach Cloth in covered patterns at 25c per yard.

Yard-wide Fashion Silks, one of our best values, at 39c.

Silk Stripe Organadies, very new and pretty. These at 45c per yard.

Forty-five-inch Ramee Linen in Reseda, Pink, Light Blue, Brown and Heliotrope; suiting weight; no more at this price—jobbers are sold out. Price, 60c per yard.

New Yard-Wide Satin Stripe Crepe in Blue and Heliotrope. This is one of our best buys at 50c per yard.

Send for samples—we pay the delivery charges.
